

Name	Great War Centennial Corner
Type	Sculptured/Cast figure Other structure ← Note - Please write 'Tank' instead if possible
Commemoration	First World War (1914-1918)
District	Broxbourne
Town	Cheshunt
County	Hertfordshire
Country	England
Maker	Roger Andrews (Statue) Dave Roberts (Tank)
Ceremony	Unveiled Date: 1 July 2019 Attended by: Cllr David Taylor
WM Reference	101808
Material	Bronze (statue) Metal and Wood (tank)
Current Location	Cedars Park Theobalds Lane Cheshunt Hertfordshire EN8 8RU England
OS Grid Ref	TL 35601 01105
Description	Replica Male Mark IV tank, on original plinth which held Female Mark IV with ID 2740. Bronze Tommy statue remembering those from the Broxbourne District who served and perished in the Great War. Bench with poppy design to remember the Fallen. A remembrance service is held at this memorial every Armistice Day.
Inscription	See plaque photo
Components	Tank Measurements: L 21 × W 13 ft Materials: Steel (body) and marine plywood (tracks) Statue Materials: Bronze

	Bench Measurements: L 1600 × W 640 × H 970 mm Materials: Steel
History	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Early 1921 - Female Tank 2740 placed on presentation plinth • May 1940 - Tank removed for scrap to support WWII effort, plinth remains • 2004 - Replica Male tank produced for filmwork • 2014 - Memorial bench installed to recognise centenary of end of WWII • 2018 - Replica makes a brief return to the plinth • 1 July 2019 - Replica installed on plinth for permanent display, and war memorial formally opened • 7 November 2019 - Tommy statue installed
Responsibility	Broxbourne Borough Council
Reference	https://www.cedarspark.info/gwcc.htm